Handspun Wool

From a carpet construction perspective, this rug provides a clear contrast to the others in the collection. It is hand knotted using a blend of wool yarn which provides a much more even tone to the color fields and a more subtle movement, evoking depth and richness rather than intensity.

With the linear quality of this design there is no need for any extravagant dye effects and finishing techniques to distract from the elegant forms of Irene Infantes' work.

Can be produced to colour, material, size and weave specifications.
